

Household Size Assurance Form

If the household size doesn't match what is on the 2020 Federal Tax Return or no tax return has been filed, use this form help in determining the total household size.

Foster Children and Foreign Exchange Students

Foster children and foreign exchange students are considered to be members of the household in which they reside.

Divorce or Separation

Children of divorced or separated parents are generally part of the household that has custody. When joint custody has been awarded and the child physically changes residence, the child is considered part of the household where he/she resides for the majority of the year.

Emancipated Child

An emancipated child living alone is considered to be household size of one.

Child Attending an Institution

A child who attends, but does not reside, in an institution is considered a member of the household in which the child resides.

Child Away at School

A child who is temporarily away at school (college or boarding school) is included as a member of the household.

Child Living with One Parent, Relative, or Friends

If no specific welfare agency or court is legally responsible for the child or where the child is living with one parent, other relatives, or friends of the family, the child is considered to be a member of the household with whom the child resides.

Deployed Service Personnel

Any member of the armed services who is activated or deployed in support of any military combat operation is counted as a household member.

New-Born Child

A new-born child (born after the household taxes have been filed) is included in the household size.
